Steve and Sharon Sanford Ethnos360

Steve and Sharon went to the field of Venezuela in 1993. After a year of Spanish study they moved into the jungle to work with the Yuana/Joti tribal people. They lived there for 11 years until they and other missionaries were removed from the jungle by the government. During this time in the jungle, they were involved in Bible teaching, medical work and translation work. They currently serve with the Ethnos360 Wayumi Team in Jersey Shore, where Steve is a teacher and Sharon oversees the cleaning of the facility. In addition to their roles at Wayumi Steve also serves on the Executive Leadership Team of Ethnos360.

Praise:

- For the birth of our newest grandbaby Lauren Brielle. Pray for Seth & Kaitlyn as they prepare to depart to PNG January 2018.
- For a full and effective summer of Wayumi Expedition weeks.
- Privilege for Steve to teach Biblical Foundations class @ Ethnos360 Bible Institute.
